In C, there are many different ways for a program to communicate with the user, lovespeed 1.8451212 badge gold3535 badge silver47 bronze badge Outside the top of my head, you can use setw(n) to specify the output width, as this: Stanristan The key is, like others said, to use manipulators. What they need to say is that you normally use the manipulators you write on your own. A Ffmt manipulator (which corresponds to the F inFortran format is quite easy: In this way, you can define a variable for each column, say: and write: In general, except in the simplest programs, you probably shouldn't use standard manipulators, but rather custom manipulators according to your application; for example temperature and pressure if this is the type ofthat's about you. The plug-in is used if available. The name given by name is used when selecting the 'Save as' option on the link that generates the PDF. Q: send to the browser and force a download file with the name given by name. F: save in a local file with the name given by name (can include a path). S: return the document as string, the name is ignored. VeveVeve 5.47055 gold badges3030 silver badges5050 bronze badges Here is the example, check!
