Free handwriting practice worksheets for kindergarten

Finding free handwriting worksheets can be so helpful when teaching your kids writing skills. We found a bunch of worksheets for kids of all ages from preschoolers to older kids learning cursive. And the best part (besides the fact that they are free)? They help make handwriting lots of fun! Free Handwriting Worksheets Tips to Teach Preschoolers Handwriting Make it a fun endeavor. Young children are more apt to get excited about handwriting when you are excited, too. Keep the fussing out of handwriting and it will benefit your child tremendously! Here are some great tips on how to get your preschooler excited about handwriting. Practice, Practice, Practice! Let your children practice using different handwriting techniques. Here are some great tips on different ways your child can practice writing their name. And these 10 handwriting exercises will help keep your child excited about practicing while getting in some great fine motor skill practice! Let Them Lead It's never a good idea to "force" your children to write. That can bring tears, frustration, and a whole lot of resentment. Instead let your children lead. If they show interest at a young age, great. If not, that's okay, too. As long as you are not pushing them too hard, they will all eventually want to write. You know your child best so watch for the signs. More Fun Ways to Develop Fine Motor Skills Because handwriting involves using the small muscles in your child's hand, it is a good idea to use fun activities to develop their fine motor skills. It's so neat to watch your child as they develop these skill and coordination. And it will help them do many things well in their lives for years to come! Below are 10 fun ways you can help your child develop the fine motor skills necessary for handwriting. Letter of the Alphabet Handwriting Practice We have been featuring a new set of worksheets and activity sheets each week for every letter of the alphabet! Be sure to head over and take a look at our Fun with Letters 26-week handwriting curriculum. It's lots of fun! BE SURE TO FOLLOW OUR FACEBOOK PAGE FOR MORE FUN KIDS ACTIVITIES! Want More Learning Activities? Learning to write doesn't happen overnight, and it doesn't start with the ABC's. Before kids can form letters, they need to practice using writing tools and making basic writing strokes. These free pre-writing printables give kids practice with common strokes that are found in letters, and can be used in many different ways! *For even more fun with writing practice, grab our Alphabet Writing Centers! Pre-Writing Printables I like to start the school year with these pre-writing printables either as morning work or at the beginning of writers workshop. You could also send them home for practice or use them as centers or in small groups. Some of my students may already write, however I find that practice with common strokes can really help their neatness and letter formation down the road. We trace curves, diagonals, zig-zags, and more! There are 13 pages of pre-writing printables! We use crayons, markers – any writing tool will work. While pencils are of course the most common writing tool, I find that with these types of practice pages, it is far more engaging for kids to use special tools such as skinny markers, crayons, or other fun items that are used only for "special activities" like this. Plus, they are still getting practice with pencil grip, but it is just more fun to see marker or crayon strokes show up than pencil! They also love making the pages colorful. For some added fun, and to save on paper, I put these pre-writing printables in dry erase pockets. This lets me use them during Daily 5 or in small groups over and over again without needing endless copies! This is helpful for after you have already used a sheet once, but notice you want some students to practice certain strokes some more. Plus, my kids LOVE when I bring out the dry erase markers – for some reason that makes every task instantly more enjoyable! Grab Your Free Set of Pre-Writing Printables Ready to get working on writing? Grab your copy of pre-writing tracing sheets by clicking the large, yellow download button at the end of the post. Want unlimited access to even MORE fun activities and resources? Then be sure you request your invitation to let us help you plan all year long inside the Print and Play Club! With instant access to hundreds of printables by topic and skill (no more scouring the internet!), every TKC resource, a digital games vault, "Super" Sunday Surprises, and much more – your planning time just got easier. Create your own custom handwriting worksheets for handwriting practice! You can choose traditional or modern print styles: Handwriting Worksheets for Print Practice Letters, numbers, and the following characters can be used: . ! ? , ' () + = – Use the underscore character _ to make a division symbol. (Any other characters will show up as an error on the worksheet.) Choose which mode you prefer: Landscape or portrait mode? Approximately 12 characters will fit on one line when printed in portrait mode. Up to 17 characters will print per line when printing in landscape mode. To change print modes, go to your browser's page setup, then 'Print Preview' to check the results before printing. Set your margins at 0.5" or less for best results. NEW! Personalized Printable Name Books. I'm building a collection of name books. You can request name(s) that you would like to see me put together next. Thank you for using my handwriting worksheet maker! I am a former teacher and now mom of three. I am not a programmer, but taught myself how to code this simple worksheet maker several years ago. Sometimes simple is good, but I'm planning to add some more options and features for those of you who want more. If you want to share pictures of these handwriting worksheets in action, I'd love to see them. Post on A to Z's Facebook.
