View Full Article 2 Likes Terrible release date, major holiday season for the majority of Europe. Cant imagine this is any different overseas. Whats the rush in the release? Still major bugs on the beta and only 1 raid tested. Seriously, how stupid are you at Blizzard, to release it when the majority of people playing your game, is on holidays? The beta is nowhere close to being polished for a pre-patch release, but you suddenly decided to go for July 21. Mid august wouldve been so much better if you actually cared, this is a complete joke on your end blizzard, like holy f man! 1 Like Mnabreak:the majority of people playing your game, is on holidays?Are you sure about this?I wish it was released in june, the game is very stale now 3 Likes 1 Raid Test that proved to be super problematic and still isnt finished.Pet Battles are bugged.Dual Talent still doesnt work as intended, literally wont activate.Challenge Modes / Regular 5 Man dungeons are broken.Several Spells & Abilities does not work.Several Trinket Procs / On Use does not work.Pandaren Starting Zone is bugged to oblivion.PvP and its rewards are wrong and still bugged, especially arena.Several Transmog items are just floating around your character.The list goes on, nothing has been fixed, this is the biggest and most stupid release date i have ever seen for a game, stick to August, polish the release in a proper way, instead of giving us an unfinished product, that feels like a cheap indie game thats been in early access for 6 years, outrageous. Why on earth does SoD get a free lvl 85 boost for Panda Classic, while Retail gets nothing? Guess Im playing the panda intro for this beauty 2 Likes Nedoi:Why on earth does SoD get a free lvl 85 boost for Panda Classic, while Retail gets nothing?Simple, has been officially announced to SoD will no longer have more content developed.The boost is a way to faster catch up for people that have played SoD only and want to move to another game mode. Mnabreak:Seriously, how stupid are you at Blizzard, to release it when the majority of people playing your game, is on holidays?Yeah just because you are going on holiday means everybody is going on holiday . Punyelf:Guess Im playing the panda intro for this beautyNever played mist of panderia when it was released .is this mount obtainable in mop classic and if so then what are requirements ? We have to do the classic Mists starter zone for pandaren all the way through to choosing a faction. Then we will get the mount in retail.if i understand correctly we have to do mop classic version starting area in classic mode to get the mount in retail or do you mean we do mop expansion starting area in retail to get the mount ? As you seem confused by my previous explanation, Ill do this:You log on Classic Mists of PandariaCreate Pandaren characterLevel up Pandaren character through starter isle up to and including choosing a factionLog out of Classic MistsLog in Retail, see new mount 4 Likes Punyelf:Log in Retail, see new mountThanks. that is new information for me but helpful one 1 Like Playing WoW all summer isnt a holiday? Sounds rubbish! I am confused, event to earn the dragon mount shows the entirety of July yet Classic Mop aint out till the 21st? Beerwolf:I am confused, event to earn the dragon mount shows the entirety of July yet Classic Mop aint out till the 21st?Pre-patch. You can make a pandaren already, so you can level it up to max level and have it prepared for MoP launch. At least; thats my guess. 1 Like Lol, now everyone will get to see why it was a very bad expansion. Benjamin:Lol, now everyone will get to see why it was a very good expansion.Fixed it. MoP is regarded as peak WoW by many, especially on the class design, raiding and PvP front.The world building was for me unprecedented too, with incredible detail being given to the terrain, lots of small interactable objects and the last time we had true rares. 2 Likes Page 2 Considering how popular MoP remix was Sure. So good it lost 4M subs. Genius. Because of the OMG Kung Fu Panda hysteria and WoW is going to be so childish now fearmongerers. It was also the fifth WoW instalment so a lot of people just naturally burnt out during the first patch and its rep farms. In retrospect many see it as an amazing expansion though.I will remind you also that the raiding and PvP content is what keeps people playing the Classic versions right now. And these were 10/10 in MoP. 2 Likes Thank you. Since I bought MoP Classic. But I dont want play it.Reason I wanted dragon, tiger and pet in retail.Now Blizzard put new mount. Me need in MoP Classic for short and done. 1 Like At least we can do it in prepatch as well. I have to admit its a bit weak that we only get a recolour. What did you expect? Its a mount themed to the expansion. Would you have preferred a different model? Or you expected something completely new?Same kind of deal as the promotion they did for Wrath World of Warcraft Complete the Death Knight starting experience in Wrath of the Lich King Classic before the release of Dragonflight on 28 November and get a Frostbrood Proto-Wyrm mount in World of Warcraft. The one from Wrath was unique in some way, because it has a slightly different head model, and the textures on the body are probably quite unique. There is no other mount like this, only in a different color.And this one is literally identical to the ones we have, only in a different color. We have one from some raid. Recently in MoP Remix there was another color variant. It would be nice if it was at least a little different apart from the color. Winterhide:It would be nice if it was at least a little different apart from the color.I suppose thats what the Sha-Warped Cloud Serpent is for. But yeah, youre going to have to pay for that one.As a sidenote: Im happy I can finally start using the Ensemble: Stormstouts Sha-Warped Collection I got, once the pre-patch starts. Tah is going dark! I have no impression people people found it bad. I had a newborn at the time, so only quested, but the solo experience was quite enjoyable, and all I hear is compliments about it, as one of their top expansions popularity wise. Was not my favourite though, but I my favs usually includes me doing endgame. People questioned the theme. I hated cataclysm and came back for mists. I enjoyed the expansion at the time. Mists of pandaria is really cool. Me too! Ill have to find some clever way to make him look cool though. Because while Monk can use a full set and look good, a Death Knight would be a bit off thematically. 1 Like Tah:The boost is a way to faster catch up for people that have played SoD only and want to move to another game mode.Still dont see why other versions of the game cant have the same thing? The rest either need to grind from 0, or buy a boost - but this is just free for those who play SoD? Nah. Should make some requirement for Retail and normal classic as well, imo. To get a boost to dip into MoP Because as i said before, SoD is no longer going to have new content, on the other hand retail and classic progression still have. Cant wait to see complaining bout all the bugs in mop You mean like every single piece of content they release?Yes, people with whine about bugs. All the time, at any stage of the game. Well it flopped, why? Because it was bad. Did kung fu panda made it loss 4M subs? Maybe but the fact it did makes it the 2nd worst expac after WOD.
