

I'm not a robot

Concerti arena di verona 2025 cantanti

Here's what previous visitors have asked, with answers from representatives of Arena di Verona and other visitors Will you pick up and drop off at my hotel? I have a family of 7. Can your tour accommodate all of us together? How should I dress for this tour? Fondazione Arena di Verona / Arena Opera Festival / Prepara la tua visita in Arena Organizza il tuo parcheggio in anticipo e goditi lo spettacolo Powered by Arena di Verona 2025: Un'Esperienza Musicale Unica L'Arena di Verona 2025 conferma ancora una volta il suo status di palcoscenico musicale d'eccezione. Nella splendida cornice dell'anfiteatro romano, che ha già ospitato negli anni artisti come Andrea Bocelli, Elton John, Zucchero e Vasco Rossi, la nuova edizione propone una line-up ricca di grandi nomi della musica italiana e internazionale. Tra i protagonisti di quest'anno spiccano Jovanotti, con la sua energia travolgente e i suoi ritmi inconfondibili, e i leggendari Simple Minds, pronti a far rivivere i loro successi che hanno segnato la storia della musica. Sul fronte italiano, saliranno sul palco icone come Gianna Nannini, che con la sua voce graffiante incanta generazioni di fan, e il poeta della musica Francesco De Gregori. A loro si aggiungono artisti contemporanei come Geolier, rappresentante di punta della scena rap italiana, e il sempre solare Francesco Gabbani, noto per il suo stile ironico e melodico. Un appuntamento speciale sarà rappresentato dal Music Awards 2025, una serata dedicata ai grandi premi della musica italiana, che renderà omaggio ai protagonisti dell'anno in un'atmosfera carica di emozioni. Con un mix di generi che spazia dal pop al rock, passando per il rap e la canzone d'autore, l'Arena di Verona 2025 è pronta a regalarvi serate indimenticabili sotto il cielo stellato di Verona. L'Arena di Verona è un maestoso anfiteatro romano nel centro storico della città. Costruito nel I secolo d.C., è uno dei meglio conservati al mondo. Utilizzato per spettacoli di gladiatori, oggi ospita concerti e opere, trasportando i visitatori in un'atmosfera unica. Concerti Arena di Verona 2024, il programma di ogni concerto all'Arena di Verona per il 2024 di tutti i cantanti previsti nei prossimi eventi. Concerti Arena di Verona 2024 Concerti Arena di Verona programma 2024 per ogni concerto dei cantanti con eventi in programma all'Arena di Verona. La programmazione all'Arena di Verona dei concerti per il 2025 prevede in cartellone nomi di cantanti molto famosi, come Lorenzo Jovanotti e i Simple Minds. Tra i più importanti eventi che si svolgeranno all'Arena di Verona nel 2025 troviamo i Music Awards 2025 in cui verranno premiate le grandi stelle della musica italiana. Tra gli eventi in programma a Verona sono previsti anche i concerti al teatro filarmónico di Claudio Baglioni con il tour di PIANO DI VOLO soloTRIS. Programma concerti Arena di Verona 2025 Ecco l'elenco di ogni concerto all'Arena di Verona in programma per il 2025: Simple Minds all'Arena di Verona i Simple Minds si esibiscono all'Arena di Verona il 15 Luglio 2025.Dopo l'enorme successo del Global Tour 2024 che li ha visti protagonisti nel nostro paese con sei date sold out, a grande richiesta i Simple Minds tornano in Italia con il loro Summer Live 2025. Roberto Bolle and Friends all'Arena di Verona Roberto Bolle e le star internazionali della danza tornano ad esibirsi all'Arena di Verona in due serate: il 22 e il 23 Luglio 2025. Un'occasione imperdibile per ammirare la bellezza e la magia della danza e rimanerne affascinati in un luogo magico. Music Awards 2025 all'Arena di Verona Tornado i Music Awards 2025 all'Arena di Verona che si svolgeranno il 12 e il 13 settembre 2025. In queste due serate verranno premiate le grandi stelle della musica italiana in compagnia di importanti artisti italiani e personaggi di spicco del mondo della televisione, del cinema, del teatro e dello sport. Zucchero all'Arena di Verona 2025 Al momento non è stata ancora confermata nessuna data di Zucchero all'Arena di Verona per il 2025. Potrebbero comunque essere aggiunte delle nuove date di un concerto di Zucchero all'Arena di verona visto l'enorme successo riscontrato negli anni passati e il tour estivo ancora in fase di programmazione. Claudio Baglioni in Concerto a Verona 2025 Dopo il posticipo della partenza del tour "PIANO DI VOLO SOLOTris" Claudio Baglioni torna in concerto a Verona. Sarà possibile partecipare a tre date: il 22, 23 e 24 Aprile 2025. Claudio Baglioni : 23/04/2025 Claudio Baglioni : 24/04/2025 Si ricorda che gli eventi e i concerti all'Arena di Verona si svolgono all'aperto e in caso di maltempo lo spettacolo potrebbe essere posticipato o annullato prima dell'orario di inizio spettacolo L'Arena di Verona si trova in Piazza Brà nel cuore della città Scaligera. Il Lago di Garda si trova in una posizione strategica per gli appassionati di musica e i frequentatori di concerti. Location storiche e prestigiose ospitano, in particolare a Verona e Villafranca, grandi artisti di rilievo nazionale ed internazionale in grado di attirare schiere di ammiratori da tutta la penisola. Concerti di grandi nomi in meravigliose cornici, ma anche una miriade di occasioni su tutto il territorio gardesano per partecipare a festival e ascoltare gruppi locali di ottimo livello. L'offerta di concerti va incontro a qualsiasi gusto o preferenza, tanti generi musicali e tante influenze: musica leggera, classica, lirica, cantautorato, pop, rock, punk, folk, metal, dance, hip hop. Una trasversalità che ha sempre contraddistinto la proposta di questo territorio ed ha permesso che mondi differenti venissero in contatto grazie alla forza aggregante della musica. Un'occasione per conoscere nuove realtà, spaziare e incontrare appassionati di musica da tutto il mondo. Ecco quali sono i concerti in programma a Verona nel 2025. 13 maggio Riccardo Cocciante 15, 16, 18, 19 e 21 maggio Jovanotti 7 luglio Mumford & Sons 15 luglio Simple Minds 12 e 13 settembre Music Awards 2025 16, 17, 19, 20, 22, 23, 25 settembre Zucchero 18 settembre Antonello Venditti 21 settembre Francesco De Gregori 27 settembre Geolier 30 settembre Francesco Gabbani 2 ottobre Irama 3 ottobre Brunetti Sas 4 ottobre Francesca Michielin 5 ottobre Umberto Tozzi 12 luglio Francesco Renga 17 luglio Roberto Vecchioni 23 luglio Stewart Copeland 25 luglio Fabri Fibra 17 marzo Alla scoperta di Morricone - Ensemble Symphony Orchestra 22, 23 e 24 aprile Claudio Baglioni 28 aprile Massimo Ranieri 17 novembre Gio Eno 27 giugno Cat Power 29 giugno Stefano Bollani e Trilok Gurtu Duo 5 luglio Max Richter 6 luglio NEK 12 luglio Tony Ann 13 luglio Jack Savoretti 19 luglio Simone Cristicchi 26 luglio Irene Grandi 27 luglio Goran Bregovic and The Wedding and Funeral Band 28 luglio Gaia 8 agosto Alea Britti 6 settembre Marco Masini 24 settembre Edoardo Gennato 25 febbraio Si Viaggiare, Battisti la storia 26 febbraio ABBA Dream 28 febbraio Elvis The King is Back 10 aprile Pink Floyd History 9 maggio Omaggio a Morricone - Musiche da Oscar 11 maggio Anime Sympho Show 13 maggio The Music of Hans Zimmer and Others 27 giugno Hermanos Gutierrez 28 giugno The The 5 luglio Marcus King 9 luglio Finneas 13 luglio Bill Callahan 14 luglio Brandi Carlile 15 luglio Anastacia 17 luglio Kamasi Washington 23 luglio Morrissey 24 luglio Mika 25 luglio Vinicio Capossela 26 e 29 luglio Antonello Venditti 27 luglio Kenny Wayne Shepherd *date ed eventi in aggiornamento Petr Il'ič Čajkovskij, Alberto Ginastera, Arturo Márquez, José Pablo Moncayo L'ottavo concerto della stagione sinfonica 2025 al Teatro Filarmonico Il primo capolavoro di Giuseppe Verdi inaugura l'Arena di Verona Opera Festival 2025 con un nuovo spettacolare allestimento di Stefano Poda. L'Aida «di cristallo» (e dei record) è pronta a ipnotizzare gli spettatori per tredici, spettacolari serate. Fatti incantare dall'elegante produzione de "La Traviata" di Hugo De Ana, con scenografie e costumi che rendono omaggio alla belle époque. L'allestimento kolossal che ha riscritto le regole dello spettacolo areniaco: la celebre Carmen di Franco Zeffirelli ritorna. Co-production con ArteDanza SRL Roberto Bolle, insieme alle star internazionali del balletto, ti aspetta all'Arena di Verona per due serate dedicate alla grande danza. Il Re dei tenori Jonas Kaufmann torna in Arena da protagonista, un Gala esclusivo con la più emozionante produzione dell'opera italiana. Prima opera della "trilogia popolare" di Giuseppe Verdi e capolavoro del melodramma italiano, Rigoletto torna in Arena per quattro date nel 2025. L'impeto del "Carmina Burana" influenza l'Arena. Un appuntamento lirico-sinfonico imperdibile, una serata che non dimenticherai. Zorba il greco ritorna al Teatro Romano di Verona per una serata unica a ritmo di sirtaki! Il grande ritorno dello spettacolo immersivo che celebra Le Quattro Stagioni di Vivaldi con la regia di Marco Balich e Giovanni Andrea Zanon al violino dopo il successo del 2024 in un concerto che unisce musica classica e tecnologia. Il 12 ottobre, quattro percussionisti dell'Orchestra di Fondazione Arena si cimentano in una ricca antologia di brani e trascrizioni Opera-ballo in due atti di Giacomo Puccini Drama buffo in due atti di Gioacchino Rossini Leoš Janáček, Aleksandr Glazunov, Richard Strauss Il nono concerto della stagione sinfonica 2025 al Teatro Filarmonico Arnold Bax, Luigi Boccherini, Gordon Jacob Il 30 novembre, nelle sale del Museo degli Affreschi, uno dei programmi più originali della serie Musei in Musica 2025 Orazio Sciortino, Francis Poulenc, Richard Strauss Il decimo concerto della stagione sinfonica 2025 al Teatro Filarmonico In 7 dicembre, la rassegna di Musei in Musica si chiude con Stravinsky Drama lirico in quattro parti di Giuseppe Verdi Concerto straordinario fuori abbonamento di Capodanno della stagione sinfonica 2025 al Teatro Filarmonico Once purchased, tickets cannot be refunded or exchanged for another date and/or sector. Tickets refunds before the event are never provided. Should weather conditions prevent a performance from being staged as scheduled, Fondazione Arena di Verona may postpone the beginning by up to 150 minutes. In the event of a performance being stopped after it has begun, spectators will have no right to a refund of the ticket price. Click here for further information. For all information regarding access to disabled spectators, we advise you to consult the dedicated page here. It is not necessary to print your ticket, you can also enter by showing the ticket on your smartphone. We would like to remind you that Fondazione Arena di Verona is NOT obliged to issue an invoice for the tickets purchased for the Arena Opera Festival, as the ticket itself is a tax receipt and its issue guarantees fulfillment of the relevant tax obligations. If you are a business or have a VAT registration number and need to receive an invoice, this can still be requested from the company that made your ticket purchase or in any case, BEFORE the date of the performance). ONLY when you complete the following form. The invoice will be issued from the month following the date of the performance purchased (no advance invoices are issued). Any other invoice request submitted through other channels, after the date of the performance, or which is not related to the ongoing Festival, will NOT be considered and therefore, automatically cancelled. Children can enter the Arena from the age of 4. A package dedicated to families is not foreseen, however, your can visit our web page dedicated to Arena young. Yes. All info can be found here. To ensure correct management of the entrances and to avoid delays, the spectator is required to arrive at the Arena at least one hour before the start of the show. The gates open two hours before the show starts. There is no compulsory dress code. In the stalls seats, a smart dress is preferable and shorts, tank tops/vests and thong sandals ARE NOT ALLOWED for men. No, there is no cloakroom service. No, but it can be purchased before the beginning of the show at the Arena shop at gate 10 Yes, it is possible to enter with a small backpack and a small/folding umbrella (with no sharp points). On the other hand, it is forbidden to introduce cases, trolley cases, bags, backpacks or other bulky containers (over 17 litres). If you have a seat on the stone steps, you can bring a cushion from home or purchase one at the Arena from the venue staff. It is not possible to bring food or drinks into the Arena. Plastic bottles larger than 0.5 litres and any other bottle, container or glass/plastic objects are forbidden, as are any other blunt instruments that could cause damage to oneself or others. No, it is forbidden to bring photo and/or video cameras, tripods or musical instruments into the Arena. Click here for the full Terms and Conditions We advise you to obtain this type of info on the Verona Municipality website using the following link. You can visit the dedicated page on our website here. We would like to inform you that all vouchers issued following the cancellation of the 2020 Festival have expired and can no longer be used.The procedure for requesting reimbursement of these vouchers has been published and was active on our website until 31/05/2024, the last possible date for submitting a request. It is the responsibility of the applicant to ensure that the reimbursement request is submitted within the deadline. The invoice will be issued from the month following the date of the performance purchased (no advance invoices are issued). Any other invoice request submitted through other channels, after the date of the performance, or which is not related to the ongoing Festival, will NOT be considered and therefore, automatically cancelled. Children can enter the Arena from the age of 4. A package dedicated to families is not foreseen, however, your can visit our web page dedicated to Arena young. Yes. All info can be found here. To ensure correct management of the entrances and to avoid delays, the spectator is required to arrive at the Arena at least one hour before the start of the show. The gates open two hours before the show starts. There is no compulsory dress code. In the stalls seats, a smart dress is preferable and shorts, tank tops/vests and thong sandals ARE NOT ALLOWED for men. No, there is no cloakroom service. No, but it can be purchased before the beginning of the show at the Arena shop at gate 10 Yes, it is possible to enter with a small backpack and a small/folding umbrella (with no sharp points). On the other hand, it is forbidden to introduce cases, trolley cases, bags, backpacks or other bulky containers (over 17 litres). If you have a seat on the stone steps, you can bring a cushion from home or purchase one at the Arena from the venue staff. It is not possible to bring food or drinks into the Arena. Plastic bottles larger than 0.5 litres and any other bottle, container or glass/plastic objects are forbidden, as are any other blunt instruments that could cause damage to oneself or others. No, it is forbidden to bring photo and/or video cameras, tripods or musical instruments into the Arena. Click here for the full Terms and Conditions We advise you to obtain this type of info on the Verona Municipality website using the following link. You can visit the dedicated page on our website here. We would like to inform you that all vouchers issued following the cancellation of the 2020 Festival have expired and can no longer be used.The procedure for requesting reimbursement of these vouchers has been published and was active on our website until 31/05/2024, the last possible date for submitting a request. It is the responsibility of the applicant to ensure that the reimbursement request is submitted within the deadline. The invoice will be issued from the month following the date of the performance purchased (no advance invoices are issued). Any other invoice request submitted through other channels, after the date of the performance, or which is not related to the ongoing Festival, will NOT be considered and therefore, automatically cancelled. Children can enter the Arena from the age of 4. A package dedicated to families is not foreseen, however, your can visit our web page dedicated to Arena young. Yes. All info can be found here. To ensure correct management of the entrances and to avoid delays, the spectator is required to arrive at the Arena at least one hour before the start of the show. The gates open two hours before the show starts. There is no compulsory dress code. In the stalls seats, a smart dress is preferable and shorts, tank tops/vests and thong sandals ARE NOT ALLOWED for men. No, there is no cloakroom service. No, but it can be purchased before the beginning of the show at the Arena shop at gate 10 Yes, it is possible to enter with a small backpack and a small/folding umbrella (with no sharp points). On the other hand, it is forbidden to introduce cases, trolley cases, bags, backpacks or other bulky containers (over 17 litres). If you have a seat on the stone steps, you can bring a cushion from home or purchase one at the Arena from the venue staff. It is not possible to bring food or drinks into the Arena. Plastic bottles larger than 0.5 litres and any other bottle, container or glass/plastic objects are forbidden, as are any other blunt instruments that could cause damage to oneself or others. No, it is forbidden to bring photo and/or video cameras, tripods or musical instruments into the Arena. Click here for the full Terms and Conditions We advise you to obtain this type of info on the Verona Municipality website using the following link. You can visit the dedicated page on our website here. We would like to inform you that all vouchers issued following the cancellation of the 2020 Festival have expired and can no longer be used.The procedure for requesting reimbursement of these vouchers has been published and was active on our website until 31/05/2024, the last possible date for submitting a request. It is the responsibility of the applicant to ensure that the reimbursement request is submitted within the deadline. The invoice will be issued from the month following the date of the performance purchased (no advance invoices are issued). Any other invoice request submitted through other channels, after the date of the performance, or which is not related to the ongoing Festival, will NOT be considered and therefore, automatically cancelled. Children can enter the Arena from the age of 4. A package dedicated to families is not foreseen, however, your can visit our web page dedicated to Arena young. Yes. All info can be found here. To ensure correct management of the entrances and to avoid delays, the spectator is required to arrive at the Arena at least one hour before the start of the show. The gates open two hours before the show starts. There is no compulsory dress code. In the stalls seats, a smart dress is preferable and shorts, tank tops/vests and thong sandals ARE NOT ALLOWED for men. No, there is no cloakroom service. No, but it can be purchased before the beginning of the show at the Arena shop at gate 10 Yes, it is possible to enter with a small backpack and a small/folding umbrella (with no sharp points). On the other hand, it is forbidden to introduce cases, trolley cases, bags, backpacks or other bulky containers (over 17 litres). If you have a seat on the stone steps, you can bring a cushion from home or purchase one at the Arena from the venue staff. It is not possible to bring food or drinks into the Arena. Plastic bottles larger than 0.5 litres and any other bottle, container or glass/plastic objects are forbidden, as are any other blunt instruments that could cause damage to oneself or others. No, it is forbidden to bring photo and/or video cameras, tripods or musical instruments into the Arena. Click here for the full Terms and Conditions We advise you to obtain this type of info on the Verona Municipality website using the following link. You can visit the dedicated page on our website here. We would like to inform you that all vouchers issued following the cancellation of the 2020 Festival have expired and can no longer be used.The procedure for requesting reimbursement of these vouchers has been published and was active on our website until 31/05/2024, the last possible date for submitting a request. It is the responsibility of the applicant to ensure that the reimbursement request is submitted within the deadline. The invoice will be issued from the month following the date of the performance purchased (no advance invoices are issued). Any other invoice request submitted through other channels, after the date of the performance, or which is not related to the ongoing Festival, will NOT be considered and therefore, automatically cancelled. Children can enter the Arena from the age of 4. A package dedicated to families is not foreseen, however, your can visit our web page dedicated to Arena young. Yes. All info can be found here. To ensure correct management of the entrances and to avoid delays, the spectator is required to arrive at the Arena at least one hour before the start of the show. The gates open two hours before the show starts. There is no compulsory dress code. In the stalls seats, a smart dress is preferable and shorts, tank tops/vests and thong sandals ARE NOT ALLOWED for men. No, there is no cloakroom service. No, but it can be purchased before the beginning of the show at the Arena shop at gate 10 Yes, it is possible to enter with a small backpack and a small/folding umbrella (with no sharp points). On the other hand, it is forbidden to introduce cases, trolley cases, bags, backpacks or other bulky containers (over 17 litres). If you have a seat on the stone steps, you can bring a cushion from home or purchase one at the Arena from the venue staff. It is not possible to bring food or drinks into the Arena. Plastic bottles larger than 0.5 litres and any other bottle, container or glass/plastic objects are forbidden, as are any other blunt instruments that could cause damage to oneself or others. No, it is forbidden to bring photo and/or video cameras, tripods or musical instruments into the Arena. Click here for the full Terms and Conditions We advise you to obtain this type of info on the Verona Municipality website using the following link. You can visit the dedicated page on our website here. We would like to inform you that all vouchers issued following the cancellation of the 2020 Festival have expired and can no longer be used.The procedure for requesting reimbursement of these vouchers has been published and was active on our website until 31/05/2024, the last possible date for submitting a request. It is the responsibility of the applicant to ensure that the reimbursement request is submitted within the deadline. The invoice will be issued from the month following the date of the performance purchased (no advance invoices are issued). Any other invoice request submitted through other channels, after the date of the performance, or which is not related to the ongoing Festival, will NOT be considered and therefore, automatically cancelled. Children can enter the Arena from the age of 4. A package dedicated to families is not foreseen, however, your can visit our web page dedicated to Arena young. Yes. All info can be found here. To ensure correct management of the entrances and to avoid delays, the spectator is required to arrive at the Arena at least one hour before the start of the show. The gates open two hours before the show starts. There is no compulsory dress code. In the stalls seats, a smart dress is preferable and shorts, tank tops/vests and thong sandals ARE NOT ALLOWED for men. No, there is no cloakroom service. No, but it can be purchased before the beginning of the show at the Arena shop at gate 10 Yes, it is possible to enter with a small backpack and a small/folding umbrella (with no sharp points). On the other hand, it is forbidden to introduce cases, trolley cases, bags, backpacks or other bulky containers (over 17 litres). If you have a seat on the stone steps, you can bring a cushion from home or purchase one at the Arena from the venue staff. It is not possible to bring food or drinks into the Arena. Plastic bottles larger than 0.5 litres and any other bottle, container or glass/plastic objects are forbidden, as are any other blunt instruments that could cause damage to oneself or others. No, it is forbidden to bring photo and/or video cameras, tripods or musical instruments into the Arena. Click here for the full Terms and Conditions We advise you to obtain this type of info on the Verona Municipality website using the following link. You can visit the dedicated page on our website here. We would like to inform you that all vouchers issued following the cancellation of the 2020 Festival have expired and can no longer be used.The procedure for requesting reimbursement of these vouchers has been published and was active on our website until 31/05/2024, the last possible date for submitting a request. It is the responsibility of the applicant to ensure that the reimbursement request is submitted within the deadline. The invoice will be issued from the month following the date of the performance purchased (no advance invoices are issued). Any other invoice request submitted through other channels, after the date of the performance, or which is not related to the ongoing Festival, will NOT be considered and therefore, automatically cancelled. Children can enter the Arena from the age of 4. A package dedicated to families is not foreseen, however, your can visit our web page dedicated to Arena young. Yes. All info can be found here. To ensure correct management of the entrances and to avoid delays, the spectator is required to arrive at the Arena at least one hour before the start of the show. The gates open two hours before the show starts. There is no compulsory dress code. In the stalls seats, a smart dress is preferable and shorts, tank tops/vests and thong sandals ARE NOT ALLOWED for men. No, there is no cloakroom service. No, but it can be purchased before the beginning of the show at the Arena shop at gate 10 Yes, it is possible to enter with a small backpack and a small/folding umbrella (with no sharp points). On the other hand, it is forbidden to introduce cases, trolley cases, bags, backpacks or other bulky containers (over 17 litres). If you have a seat on the stone steps, you can bring a cushion from home or purchase one at the Arena from the venue staff. It is not possible to bring food or drinks into the Arena. Plastic bottles larger than 0.5 litres and any other bottle, container or glass/plastic objects are forbidden, as are any other blunt instruments that could cause damage to oneself or others. No, it is forbidden to bring photo and/or video cameras, tripods or musical instruments into the Arena. Click here for the full Terms and Conditions We advise you to obtain this type of info on the Verona Municipality website using the following link. You can visit the dedicated page on our website here. We would like to inform you that all vouchers issued following the cancellation of the 2020 Festival have expired and can no longer be used.The procedure for requesting reimbursement of these vouchers has been published and was active on our website until 31/05/2024, the last possible date for submitting a request. It is the responsibility of the applicant to ensure that the reimbursement request is submitted within the deadline. The invoice will be issued from the month following the date of the performance purchased (no advance invoices are issued). Any other invoice request submitted through other channels, after the date of the performance, or which is not related to the ongoing Festival, will NOT be considered and therefore, automatically cancelled. Children can enter the Arena from the age of 4. A package dedicated to families is not foreseen, however, your can visit our web page dedicated to Arena young. Yes. All info can be found here. To ensure correct management of the entrances and to avoid delays, the spectator is required to arrive at the Arena at least one hour before the start of the show. The gates open two hours before the show starts. There is no compulsory dress code. In the stalls seats, a smart dress is preferable and shorts, tank tops/vests and thong sandals ARE NOT ALLOWED for men. No, there is no cloakroom service. No, but it can be purchased before the beginning of the show at the Arena shop at gate 10 Yes, it is possible to enter with a small backpack and a small/folding umbrella (with no sharp points). On the other hand, it is forbidden to introduce cases, trolley cases, bags, backpacks or other bulky containers (over 17 litres). If you have a seat on the stone steps, you can bring a cushion from home or purchase one at the Arena from the venue staff. It is not possible to bring food or drinks into the Arena. Plastic bottles larger than 0.5 litres and any other bottle, container or glass/plastic objects are forbidden, as are any other blunt instruments that could cause damage to oneself or others. No, it is forbidden to bring photo and/or video cameras, tripods or musical instruments into the Arena. Click here for the full Terms and Conditions We advise you to obtain this type of info on the Verona Municipality website using the following link. You can visit the dedicated page on our website here. We would like to inform you that all vouchers issued following the cancellation of the 2020 Festival have expired and can no longer be used.The procedure for requesting reimbursement of these vouchers has been published and was active on our website until 31/05/2024, the last possible date for submitting a request. It is the responsibility of the applicant to ensure that the reimbursement request is submitted within the deadline. The invoice will be issued from the month following the date of the performance purchased (no advance invoices are issued). Any other invoice request submitted through other channels, after the date of the performance, or which is not related to the ongoing Festival, will NOT be considered and therefore, automatically cancelled. Children can enter the Arena from the age of 4. A package dedicated to families is not foreseen, however, your can visit our web page dedicated to Arena young. Yes. All info can be found here. To ensure correct management of the entrances and to avoid delays, the spectator is required to arrive at the Arena at least one hour before the start of the show. The gates open two hours before the show starts. There is no compulsory dress code. In the stalls seats, a smart dress is preferable and shorts, tank tops/vests and thong sandals ARE NOT ALLOWED for men. No, there is no cloakroom service. No, but it can be purchased before the beginning of the show at the Arena shop at gate 10 Yes, it is possible to enter with a small backpack and a small/folding umbrella (with no sharp points). On the other hand, it is forbidden to introduce cases, trolley cases, bags, backpacks or other bulky containers (over 17 litres). If you have a seat on the stone steps, you can bring a cushion from home or purchase one at the Arena from the venue staff. It is not possible to bring food or drinks into the Arena. Plastic bottles larger than 0.5 litres and any other bottle, container or glass/plastic objects are forbidden, as are any other blunt instruments that could cause damage to oneself or others. No, it is forbidden to bring photo and/or video cameras, tripods or musical instruments into the Arena. Click here for the full Terms and Conditions We advise you to obtain this type of info on the Verona Municipality website using the following link. You can visit the dedicated page on our website here. We would like to inform you that all vouchers issued following the cancellation of the 2020 Festival have expired and can no longer be used.The procedure for requesting reimbursement of these vouchers has been published and was active on our website until 31/05/2024, the last possible date for submitting a request. It is the responsibility of the applicant to ensure that the reimbursement request is submitted within the deadline. The invoice will be issued from the month following the date of the performance purchased (no advance invoices are issued). Any other invoice request submitted through other channels, after the date of the performance, or which is not related to the ongoing Festival, will NOT be considered and therefore, automatically cancelled. Children can enter the Arena from the age of 4. A package dedicated to families is not foreseen, however, your can visit our web page dedicated to Arena young. Yes. All info can be found here. To ensure correct management of the entrances and to avoid delays, the spectator is required to arrive at the Arena at least one hour before the start of the show. The gates open two hours before the show starts. There is no compulsory dress code. In the stalls seats, a smart dress is preferable and shorts, tank tops/vests and thong sandals ARE NOT ALLOWED for men. No, there is no cloakroom service. No, but it can be purchased before the beginning of the show at the Arena shop at gate 10 Yes, it is possible to enter with a small backpack and a small/folding umbrella (with no sharp points). On the other hand, it is forbidden to introduce cases, trolley cases, bags, backpacks or other bulky containers (over 17 litres). If you have a seat on the stone steps, you can bring a cushion from home or purchase one at the Arena from the venue staff. It is not possible to bring food or drinks into the Arena. Plastic bottles larger than 0.5 litres and any other bottle, container or glass/plastic objects are forbidden, as are any other blunt instruments that could cause damage to oneself or others. No, it is forbidden to bring photo and/or video cameras, tripods or musical instruments into the Arena. Click here for the full Terms and Conditions We advise you to obtain this type of info on the Verona Municipality website using the following link. You can visit the dedicated page on our website here. We would like to inform you that all vouchers issued following the cancellation of the 2020 Festival have expired and can no longer be used.The procedure for requesting reimbursement of these vouchers has been published and was active on our website until 31/05/2024, the last possible date for submitting a request. It is the responsibility of the applicant to ensure that the reimbursement request is submitted within the deadline. The invoice will be issued from the month following the date of the performance purchased (no advance invoices are issued). Any other invoice request submitted through other channels, after the date of the performance, or which is not related to the ongoing Festival, will NOT be considered and therefore, automatically cancelled. Children can enter the Arena from the age of 4. A package dedicated to families is not foreseen, however, your can visit our web page dedicated to Arena young. Yes. All info can be found here. To ensure correct management of the entrances and to avoid delays, the spectator is required to arrive at the Arena at least one hour before the start of the show. The gates open two hours before the show starts. There is no compulsory dress code. In the stalls seats, a smart dress is preferable and shorts, tank tops/vests and thong sandals ARE NOT ALLOWED for men. No, there is no cloakroom service. No, but it can be purchased before the beginning of the show at the Arena shop at gate 10 Yes, it is possible to enter with a small backpack and a small/folding umbrella (with no sharp points). On the other hand, it is forbidden to introduce cases, trolley cases, bags, backpacks or other bulky containers (over 17 litres). If you have a seat on the stone steps, you can bring a cushion from home or purchase one at the Arena from the venue staff. It is not possible to bring food or drinks into the Arena. Plastic bottles larger than 0.5 litres and any other bottle, container or glass/plastic objects are forbidden, as are any other blunt instruments that could cause damage to oneself or others. No, it is forbidden to bring photo and/or video cameras, tripods or musical instruments into the Arena. Click here for the full Terms and Conditions We advise you to obtain this type of info on the Verona Municipality website using the following link. You can visit the dedicated page on our website here. We would like to inform you that all vouchers issued following the cancellation of the 2020 Festival have expired and can no longer be used.The procedure for requesting reimbursement of these vouchers has been published and was active on our website until 31/05/2024, the last possible date for submitting a request. It is the responsibility of the applicant to ensure that the reimbursement request is submitted within the deadline. The invoice will be issued from the month following the date of the performance purchased (no advance invoices are issued). Any other invoice request submitted through other channels, after the date of the performance, or which is not related to the ongoing Festival, will NOT be considered and therefore, automatically cancelled. Children can enter the Arena from the age of 4. A package dedicated to families is not foreseen, however, your can visit our web page dedicated to Arena young. Yes. All info can be found here. To ensure correct management of the entrances and to avoid delays, the spectator is required to arrive at the Arena at least one hour before the start of the show. The gates open two hours before the show starts. There is no compulsory dress code. In the stalls seats, a smart dress is preferable and shorts, tank tops/vests and thong sandals ARE NOT ALLOWED for men. No, there is no cloakroom service. No, but it can be purchased before the beginning of the show at the Arena shop at gate 10 Yes, it is possible to enter with a small backpack and a small/folding umbrella (with no sharp points). On the other hand, it is forbidden to introduce cases, trolley cases, bags, backpacks or other bulky containers (over 17 litres). If you have a seat on the stone steps, you can bring a cushion from home or purchase one at the Arena from the venue staff. It is not possible to bring food or drinks into the Arena. Plastic bottles larger than 0.5 litres and any other bottle, container or glass/plastic objects are forbidden, as are any other blunt instruments that could cause damage to oneself or others. No, it is forbidden to bring photo and/or video cameras, tripods or musical instruments into the Arena. Click here for the full Terms and Conditions We advise you to obtain this type of info on the Verona Municipality website using the following link. You can visit the dedicated page on our website here. We would like to inform you that all vouchers issued following the cancellation of the 2020 Festival have expired and can no longer be used.The procedure for requesting reimbursement of these vouchers has been published and was active on our website until 31/05/2024, the last possible date for submitting a request. It is the responsibility of the applicant to ensure that the reimbursement request is submitted within the deadline. The invoice will be issued from the month following the date of the performance purchased (no advance invoices are issued). Any other invoice request submitted through other channels, after the date of the performance, or which is not related to the ongoing Festival, will NOT be considered and therefore, automatically cancelled. Children can enter the Arena from the age of 4. A package dedicated to families is not foreseen, however, your can visit our web page dedicated to Arena young. Yes. All info can be found here. To ensure correct management of the entrances and to avoid delays, the spectator is required to arrive at the Arena at least one hour before the start of the show. The gates open two hours before the show starts. There is no compulsory dress code. In the stalls seats, a smart dress is preferable and shorts, tank tops/vests and thong sandals ARE NOT ALLOWED for men. No, there is no cloakroom service. No, but it can be purchased before the beginning of the show at the Arena shop at gate 10 Yes, it is possible to enter with a small backpack and a small/folding umbrella (with no sharp points). On the other hand, it is forbidden to introduce cases, trolley cases, bags, backpacks or other bulky containers (over 17 litres). If you have a seat on the stone steps, you can bring a cushion from home or purchase one at the Arena from the venue staff. It is not possible to bring food or drinks into the Arena. Plastic bottles larger than 0.5 litres and any other bottle, container or glass/plastic objects are forbidden, as are any other blunt instruments that could cause damage to oneself or others. No, it is forbidden to bring photo and/or video cameras, tripods or musical instruments into the Arena. Click here for the full Terms and Conditions We advise you to obtain this type of info on the Verona Municipality website using the following link. You can visit the dedicated page on our website here. We would like to inform you that all vouchers issued following the cancellation of the 2020 Festival have expired and can no longer be used.The procedure for requesting reimbursement of these vouchers has been published and was active on our website until 31/05/2024, the last possible date for submitting a request. It is the responsibility of the applicant to ensure that the reimbursement request is submitted within the deadline. The invoice will be issued from the month following the date of the performance purchased (no advance invoices are issued). Any other invoice request submitted through other channels, after the date of the performance, or which is not related to the ongoing Festival, will NOT be considered and therefore, automatically cancelled. Children can enter the Arena from the age of 4. A package dedicated to families is not foreseen, however, your can visit our web page dedicated to Arena young. Yes. All info can be found here. To ensure correct management of the entrances and to avoid delays, the spectator is required to arrive at the Arena at least one hour before the start of the show. The gates open two hours before the show starts. There is no compulsory dress code. In the stalls seats, a smart dress is preferable and shorts, tank tops/vests and thong sandals ARE NOT ALLOWED for men. No, there is no cloakroom service. No, but it can be purchased before the beginning of the show at the Arena shop at gate 10 Yes, it is possible to enter with a small backpack and a small/folding umbrella (with no sharp points). On the other hand, it is forbidden to introduce cases, trolley cases, bags, backpacks or other bulky containers (over 17 litres). If you have a seat on the stone steps, you can bring a cushion from home or purchase one at the Arena from the venue staff. It is not possible to bring food or drinks into the Arena. Plastic bottles larger than 0.5 litres and any other bottle, container or glass/plastic objects are forbidden, as are any other blunt instruments that could cause damage to oneself or others. No, it is forbidden to bring photo and/or video cameras, tripods or musical instruments into the Arena. Click here for the full Terms and Conditions We advise you to obtain this type of info on the Verona Municipality website using the following link. You can visit the dedicated page on our website here. We would like to inform you that all vouchers issued following the cancellation of the 2020 Festival have expired and can no longer be used.The procedure for requesting reimbursement of these vouchers has been published and was active on our website until 31/05/2024, the last possible date for submitting a request. It is the responsibility of the applicant to ensure that the reimbursement request is submitted within the deadline. The invoice will be issued from the month following the date of the performance purchased (no advance invoices are issued). Any other invoice request submitted through other channels, after the date of the performance, or which is not related to the ongoing Festival, will NOT be considered and therefore, automatically cancelled. Children can enter the Arena from the age of 4. A package dedicated to families is not foreseen, however, your can visit our web page dedicated to Arena young. Yes. All info can be found here. To ensure correct management of the entrances and to avoid delays, the spectator is required to arrive at the Arena at least one hour before the start of the show. The gates open two hours before the show starts. There is no compulsory dress code. In the stalls seats, a smart dress is preferable and shorts, tank tops/vests and thong sandals ARE NOT ALLOWED for men. No, there is no cloakroom service. No, but it can be purchased before the beginning of the show at the Arena shop at gate 10 Yes, it is possible to enter with a small backpack and a small/folding umbrella (with no sharp points). On the other hand, it is forbidden to introduce cases, trolley cases, bags, backpacks or other bulky containers (over 17 litres). If you have a seat on the stone steps, you can bring a cushion from home or purchase one at the Arena from the venue staff. It is not possible to bring food or drinks into the Arena. Plastic bottles larger than 0.5 litres and any other bottle, container or glass/plastic objects are forbidden, as are any other blunt instruments that could cause damage to oneself or others. No, it is forbidden to bring photo and/or video cameras, tripods or musical instruments into the Arena. Click here for the full Terms and Conditions We advise you to obtain this type of info on the Verona Municipality website using the following link. You can visit the dedicated page on our website here. We would like to inform you that all vouchers issued following the cancellation of the 2020 Festival have expired and can no longer be used.The procedure for requesting reimbursement of these vouchers has been published and was active on our website until 31/05/2024, the last possible date for submitting a request. It is the responsibility of the applicant to ensure that the reimbursement request is submitted within the deadline. The invoice will be issued from the month following the date of the performance purchased (no advance invoices are issued). Any other invoice request submitted through other channels, after the date of the performance, or which is not related to the ongoing Festival, will NOT be considered and therefore, automatically cancelled. Children can enter the Arena from the age of 4. A package dedicated to families is not foreseen, however, your can visit our web page dedicated to Arena young. Yes. All info can be found here. To ensure correct management of the entrances and to avoid delays, the spectator is required to arrive at the Arena at least one hour before the start of the show. The gates open two hours before the show starts. There is no compulsory dress code. In the stalls seats, a smart dress is preferable and shorts, tank tops/vests and thong sandals ARE NOT ALLOWED for men. No, there is no cloakroom service. No, but it can be purchased before the beginning of the show at the Arena shop at gate 10 Yes, it is possible to enter with a small backpack and a small/folding umbrella (with no sharp points). On the other hand, it is forbidden to introduce cases, trolley cases, bags, backpacks or other bulky containers (over 17 litres). If you have a seat on the stone steps, you can bring a cushion from home or purchase one at the Arena from the venue staff. It is not possible to bring food or drinks into the Arena. Plastic bottles larger than 0.5 litres and any other bottle, container or glass/plastic objects are forbidden, as are any other blunt instruments that could cause damage to oneself or others. No, it is forbidden to bring photo and/or video cameras, tripods or musical instruments into the Arena. Click here for the full Terms and Conditions We advise you to obtain this type of info on the Verona Municipality website using the following link. You can visit the dedicated page on our website here. We would like to inform you that all vouchers issued following the cancellation of the 2020 Festival have expired and can no longer be used.The procedure for requesting reimbursement of these vouchers has been published and was active on our website until 31/05/2024, the last possible date for submitting a request. It is the responsibility of the applicant to ensure that the reimbursement request is submitted within the deadline. The invoice will be issued from the month following the date of the performance purchased (no advance invoices are issued). Any other invoice request submitted through other channels, after the date of the performance, or which is not related to the ongoing Festival, will NOT be considered and therefore, automatically cancelled. Children can enter the Arena from the age of 4. A package dedicated to families is not foreseen, however, your can visit our web page dedicated to Arena young. Yes. All info can be found here. To ensure correct management of the entrances and to avoid delays, the spectator is required to arrive at the Arena at least one hour before the start of the show. The gates open two hours before the show starts. There is no compulsory dress code. In the stalls seats, a smart dress is preferable and shorts, tank tops/vests and thong sandals ARE NOT ALLOWED for men. No, there is no cloakroom service. No, but it can be purchased before the beginning of the show at the Arena shop at gate 10 Yes, it is possible to enter with a small backpack and a small/folding umbrella (with no sharp points). On the other hand, it is forbidden to introduce cases, trolley cases, bags, backpacks or other bulky containers (over 17 litres). If you have a seat on the stone steps, you can bring a cushion from home or purchase one at the Arena from the venue staff. It is not possible to bring food or drinks into the Arena. Plastic bottles larger than 0.5 litres and any other bottle, container or glass/plastic objects are forbidden, as are any other blunt instruments that could cause damage to oneself or others. No, it is forbidden to bring photo and/or video cameras, tripods or musical instruments into the Arena. Click here for the full Terms and Conditions We advise you to obtain this type of info on the Verona Municipality website using the following link. You can visit the dedicated page on our website here. We would like to inform you that all vouchers issued following the cancellation of the 2020 Festival have expired and can no longer be used.The procedure for requesting reimbursement of these vouchers has been published and was active on our website until 31/05/2024, the last possible date for submitting a request. It is the responsibility of the applicant to ensure that the reimbursement request is submitted within the deadline. The invoice will be issued from the month following the date of the performance purchased (no advance invoices are issued). Any other invoice request submitted through other channels, after the date of the performance, or which is not related to the ongoing Festival, will NOT be considered and therefore, automatically cancelled. Children can enter the Arena from the age of 4. A package dedicated to families is not foreseen, however, your can visit our web page dedicated to Arena young. Yes. All info can be found here. To ensure correct management of the entrances and to avoid delays, the spectator is required to arrive at the Arena at least one hour before the start of the show. The gates open two hours before the show starts. There is no compulsory dress code. In the stalls seats, a smart dress is preferable and shorts, tank tops/vests and thong sandals ARE NOT ALLOWED for men. No, there is no cloakroom service. No, but it can be purchased before the beginning of the show at the Arena shop at gate 10 Yes, it is possible to enter with a small backpack and a small/folding umbrella (with no sharp points). On the other hand, it is forbidden to introduce cases, trolley cases, bags, backpacks or other bulky containers (over 17 litres). If you have a seat on the stone steps, you can bring a cushion from home or purchase one at the Arena from the venue staff. It is not possible to bring food or drinks into the Arena. Plastic bottles larger than 0.5 litres and any other bottle, container or glass/plastic objects are forbidden, as are any other blunt instruments that could cause damage to oneself or others. No, it is forbidden to bring photo and/or video cameras, tripods or musical instruments into the Arena. Click here for the full Terms and Conditions We advise you to obtain this type of info on the Verona Municipality website using the following link. You can visit the dedicated page on our website here. We would like to inform you that all vouchers issued following the cancellation of the 2020 Festival have expired and can no longer be used.The procedure for requesting reimbursement of these vouchers has been published and was active on our website until 31/05/2024, the last possible date for submitting a request. It is the responsibility of the applicant to ensure that the reimbursement request is submitted within the deadline. The invoice will be issued from the month following the date of the performance purchased (no advance invoices are issued). Any other invoice request submitted through other channels, after the date of the performance, or which is not related to the ongoing Festival, will NOT be considered and therefore, automatically cancelled. Children can enter the Arena from the age of 4. A package dedicated to families is not foreseen, however, your can visit our web page dedicated to Arena young. Yes. All info can be found here. To ensure correct management of the entrances and to avoid delays, the spectator is required to arrive at the Arena at least one hour before the start of the show. The gates open two hours before the show starts. There is no compulsory dress code. In the stalls seats, a smart dress is preferable and shorts, tank tops/vests and thong sandals ARE NOT ALLOWED for men. No, there is no cloakroom service. No, but it can be purchased before the beginning of the show at the Arena shop at gate 10 Yes, it is possible to enter with a small backpack and a small/folding umbrella (with no sharp points). On the other hand, it is forbidden to introduce cases, trolley cases, bags, backpacks or other bulky containers (over 17 litres). If you have a seat on the stone steps, you can bring a cushion from home or purchase one at the Arena from the venue staff. It is not possible to bring food or drinks into the Arena. Plastic bottles larger than 0.5 litres and any other bottle, container or glass/plastic objects are forbidden, as are any other blunt instruments that could cause damage to oneself or others. No, it is forbidden to bring photo and/or video cameras, tripods or musical instruments into the Arena. Click here for the full Terms and Conditions We advise you to obtain this type of info on the Verona Municipality website using the following link. You can visit the dedicated page on our website here. We would like to inform you that all vouchers issued following the cancellation of the 2020 Festival have expired and can no longer be used.The procedure for requesting reimbursement of these vouchers has been published and was active on our website until 31/05/2024, the last possible date for submitting a request. It is the responsibility of the applicant to ensure that the reimbursement request is submitted within the deadline. The invoice will be issued from the month following the date of the performance purchased (no advance invoices are issued). Any other invoice request submitted through other channels, after the date of the performance, or which is not related to the ongoing Festival, will NOT be considered and therefore, automatically cancelled. Children can enter the Arena from the age of 4. A package dedicated to families is not foreseen, however, your can visit our web page dedicated to Arena young. Yes. All info can be found here. To ensure correct management of the entrances and to avoid delays, the spectator is required to arrive at the Arena at least one hour before the start of the show. The gates open two hours before the show starts. There is no compulsory dress code. In the stalls seats, a smart dress is preferable and shorts, tank tops/vests and thong sandals ARE NOT ALLOWED for men. No, there is no cloakroom service. No, but it can be purchased before the beginning of the show at the Arena shop at gate