How do men survive without handbags? Okay, we know they have their workbags and their gym bags for certain times of the week, but we genuinely have no idea where they put all of their stuff the rest of the time? But, thats their problem. We have a huge collection of bags and purses in our womens accessories collection so you never need be without your all-important handbag, clutch bag or purse.Summers comingThe warm weather is officially on the way which means long days at the beach or leisurely picnics in the park. Our roomy beach bags are the perfect size for beach towels, picnic blankets, books and sun cream making them the dream bag for fun days in the sun.Classic bagsWhether you're staying away for the night, planning a day full of walking and need a practical bag to accompany you, or facing virtually any other scenario, a classic black bag is sure to come in handy. Alternatively, our backpacks are a stylish and practical choice, featuring two handles for easy carrying, pockets for your phone, wallet, and books and a drawstring top for added security.Cross-body bagsWhen the weekend rolls around, we dress differently, we think differently and maybe most importantly, we carry different handbags. Its true, your work bag or shopping tote bag wont work for brunch with the girls or a lazy Sunday walk followed by lunch in a local bistro. Thats what our super stylish cross-body bags are for. Large enough to carry all of the essentials and stylish enough to be used day or night, these bags are a weekend essential.We have something that's just your bag.
