A berserker has 15 force at lvl 0 with force multiplier 392 which means 58 force at lvl 0. Most of the damage. Conan Exiles is a survival game in which players need strong weapons and an even stronger wit to survive and prosper. However, no amount of axes or swords can keep players safe without a set of armor study to protect their literal skin in the game. Players can try to turtle and build a strong base, but at some point, everyone has to venture out to collect supplies. The right armor can be the difference between coming home without scarcity or serious injury and nothing for the player's efforts. 10 Khari Overseer The Khari is a terrible civilization of the slavers even if you keep slaves or thrall for yourself in Conan Exiles, then they might need to lower the hypocrisy and perhaps embrace what they have become by taking after the Khari. The Khari The armor set for overload is the best way to label yourself in such a bad attempt. While we do not concede to digital methods, we cannot deny the protective appeal of the Khari Overseer armor. If players wear the full set, they get significant amounts of strength and endurance. Where to get it: Scroll (Khari Overseer Armor) descends from the final head of the Wine Cellar. This allows players to create the of armor. 9 Khari Soldier If being dressed as Khari's executive slave-trade is a regrettable thought, then perhaps dressing as one of their soldiers might be more appealing. Private Khari's armor set up in this way may be the best option. It is perfect for players who want to make characters due to the high amount of vitality that the armor gives to the wearer. It also has a better helmet than the Overseer set, stylistically. Where to find it:Slide (Khari Armor Soldier) drops from the end of the cellar. This allows players to create the armor set. 8 Khari Raider +6 Size +6 Survival By far the coolest of all the legendary Khari armor, the Khari Raider set is a great choice for shady players and vagabonds. It grants a lot of clutter so that players can carry more items. The survival bonus is also great if players are not going to get comfortable at a single point. It's not innocent armor at all, even though Khari Raiders is leading Khari slave-taking operations. Hence the need for all those clutter bonuses. Players can use it better if they want. Where to find it:Slide (Khari Raider Armor) drops from the end head of the cellar. This allows players to create the armor set. 7 Scorpion Armor Cold Resistance Poison Resistance +3 Survival If players want a stylish and functionally impressive upper portion armor, then the Scorpion Armor takes the cake. True to its name, it provides an impressive amount of defense even though the armor has only two pieces (helmet and bust). In addition to good defense, the Scorpion Armor automatically cures any poison in the wearer's system. If that's not enough, it adds Poison and Cold Resistance and some survival bonuses for players who think the world is too tough. Where to find it:Keeper of the Flame in the Nameless City The Commander in the Nameless City The Walker in the Nameless City Observer in the Nameless City 6 Sobek's Armor Not the best but Sobek's Armor makes the players muscular and fleshy beyond recognition, both literally and figuratively, because the armor turns them into an erect crocodile. This is a fact since the armor is named after an Egyptian god with a crocodile appearance. However, Sobek's Armor emanates tons of vitality, turning the wearer into walking crocodile tanks. Each individual piece also adds defence and overall resistances. Where to find it:Aridis, Chosen by Sobek in Xalthar Refuge 5 Vermin Hide Heat Resistance +2 all Attributes Anyone looking for a perfect match for the Scorpion Armor might want to take a look at the Vermin Hide armor set. This consists of just a pair of trousers and a pair of boots, as if it had been custom-made as a companion for the Scorpion Armor. Another reason why the Scorpion armor integrates so well is the grained heat resistance. Meanwhile, it's also great for any character build thanks to the universal bonus stat. Where to find it: Winged Death in Nameless 4 Aesir's Pride Cold Resistance +2 Accuracy +2 Strength +2 Vitality +2 Grain +2 Size Speaking of all-inclusive statistical bonuses, Aesir's Pride won't back down from this contest. And even one of the best sets of armor for players who like to do characters in well rounded conquerors. Each piece of the Pride of Aesir armor gives a specific stat bonus. Wear all of them and could also be +2 to the most popular and essential statistics. The armor set also seems to have been ripped directly from a Norse-themed Valkyrie opera performance, players can practically feel Wagner's Ride of the Valkyries while wearing it. Where to get it: Scroll (Pride of Aesir) from Thorpar the blacksmith 3 Godbreaker Armor Heat Resistance/Cold Resistance +100 Armor +1 Grit +2 Strength +2 Agility +1 Armband For one of the most powerful sets of legendary armor there are in the game, the kind that makes avatar god tremble with fear, do not look beyond the Godbreaker Armor. Turns players into their avatar of death and destruction. As for protection, it is the most generous, adding another 100 defensive points at the top of the individual bonus piece. It is also impressive enough to make players worthy of worship. Where to get it: A stele on one side of the Sanctuary of Warmaker 2 Heat resistance of the commander/Cold Resistance Sandstorm Mask +3 Vitality Another good match for the Vermin Hide if players find the Poison resistance they want is the commander's amor. It also consists of only two pieces, the helmet and the torso guard. Its appearance was also inspired by classic Greek hoplite dresses, complete with the Corinthian rudder. The Commander's Armor is also great for exploring the deserted areas of the game; comes with an innate Sandstorm mask, making the carrier resistant to all those flying grains of discomfort. Where to get it: Guardian of the Flame in The Unnamed City The Commander in The Unnamed City The Gravewalker in The Unnamed City The Watcher in The Unnamed City 1 Arena Champion's Armor Cold Resistance +4 Strength +6 Grille How beautiful is the armor if you can't show, right? That's why the Armor of the Arena Champion exists as it does. It is the brightest and brightest armor of the game, made to reflect the faces of the player's enemies so that you can see how bad they look before they are punished. Stat-wise, this heavy armor offers a lot of protection along with some impressive bonuses for melee-focused characters. The innate Cold Resistance makes it ideal for snowy parts of the map. Where to get it: A stele in one side of the Sanctuary of Warmaker NEXT: Conan Exiles: Tips to help players build an impressive Base Twitch Adds new category and Amouranth is already its most popular Streamer Amouranth traded gears but its usual whirlpool tub and ASMR streams to join in celebrating the new IRL category of Twitch.
